Captured 11:04 - 13:53, Paraguay time (UTC-3)

Portrait pages hold one large mobile view or two stacked desktop views. Single wide desktop views and book slides use landscape pages.

Desktop: 1440 x 900 pixels. Mobile: 390 x 844 pixels, using the legacy mobile pages. News, Podcasts, Press, Books and Biography are captured to page end. Artwork collections and Drebinology use up to ten sample views per viewport. The homepage uses one overview. Videos and carousels are frozen in screenshots.

How to use this reference

Choose a section in Contents, then open its live URL from the footer. Compare at the stated viewport size and scroll position to check layout, image size and crop.

The capture records retain URLs, viewport sizes and scroll offsets for repeat checks. Published lazy images were loaded and fade animations completed in the capture tab. Scroll-loader callbacks were disabled for News and Press; Press image dimensions were fixed to prevent shifts. Site files were unchanged.

Scope: old.daviddrebin.com homepage and all sixteen navigation sections. Includes ten desktop detail views each for Limited Edition and Dream Series. External pages, video playback and further artwork details are excluded.

72 legacy Press image URLs failed to decode during capture; their gaps remain visible. Available page text is retained. Screenshots are JPEG-compressed; motion is frozen. This visual reference is not a restoration backup.

07.16.2026

The House of Drebin is pleased to announce the appointment of Michelle Tripodi as Global Art Liaison, a newly created role dedicated to cultivating relationships with collectors, advisors, and galleries worldwide.

Michelle joins The House of Drebin after years at Galerie de Bellefeuille, where she earned a reputation for discretion, precision, and thoughtful collector relationships. FLAUNT MAGAZINE | NEW YORKERS LINE UP IN WASHINGTON SQUARE PARK TO ENGAGE WITH DAVID DREBIN

10.16.2024

Everyone has a story.💛

"There's something strangely beautiful about that moment between a dream and reality—the place where who we are and who we want to be get all tangled up like mismatched lovers. David Drebin has captured this feeling in his latest project, but this time, he's left the camera at home.

Instead, Drebin wandered into Washington Square Park, Manhattan, with nothing but a simple sign that read Free Readings (Who You Really Are). No tarot cards, no crystal balls—just him, staring into people's eyes, channeling his inner mind-reader, and spilling out what he saw. Bold, right? Almost romantic in a way. Just him, you, and a moment of raw truth...

WASHINGTON SQUARE PARK

Washington Square Park is an absolute gem for a whole slew of original originals. This place is a freakin' playground for the wildest, most boundary-breaking artists and thinkers.
It's like a magnet for the misfits, the rebels, and the ones who dare to challenge the status quo.
First of all, the energy in Washington Square Park is off the charts. You've got street performers, musicians, poets, and artists of all kinds, just doing their thing without a care in the world.
It's a freakin' circus of creativity, and I love it! You never know what you're gonna see or hear next. It's like walking into a freakin' acid trip!
And let me tell you, the people-watching game in this park is top-notch.
You've got characters from all walks of life, from the eccentric old lady who talks to squirrels, to the dude with blue hair playing a frickin' theremin...

Inspired by love, passion and desire, David Drebin transfers the quintessence of his photographic stories into Neon Installations and compresses them into lettering and pictograms. He expresses truths that are often overlooked or taken for granted, but are imbued with enormous intensity in their expressiveness." - Camera Work

07.01.2023

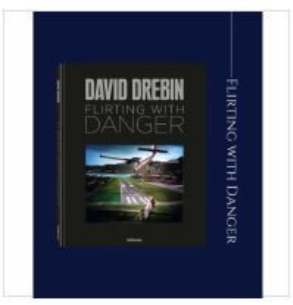

Chasing vs Attracting.〽️

Thank you for having me as a guest on your podcast @officialshahiddurrani

"In this episode, David beautifully articulates the importance of building ourselves, attracting the right energy, and how showing vulnerability can be a strength. He speaks candidly about his love for public speaking, a fear he has turned into his greatest passion.

One of the most inspiring quotes from the episode was when he said, "I just hope that if there is at least one person who may be listening or watching who occasionally may lack belief in themselves, that hearing you and I converse, it gives them hope to chase their dreams and believe in themselves."

This episode is packed full of wisdom, personal stories, and actionable advice. If you're looking for an inspiring and motivating conversation, this episode is a must-listen!

FLIRTING WITH DANGER | TENEUES BOOKS

🖤 In a cinematographic manner, David Drebin creates a dream world that, thanks to his hyper-realistic style, at the same time seems so lifelike that as a viewer you feel like part of the scenery. Perhaps it is this twist that makes his artworks so suspenseful, or perhaps it is the way he skillfully stages his protagonists. Each of his pictures leaves the impression of its own dramaturgy, which only stimulates the mental cinema. What will happen next? What happened before?

🖤 David Drebin erschafft auf cinematografische Weise eine Traumwelt, die dank seines hyperrealistischen Stils gleichzeitig so lebensecht wirkt, dass man sich als Betrachter als Teil der Szenerie fühlt. Vielleicht ist es gerade dieser Twist, der seine Kunstwerke so spannungsgeladen wirken lässt, vielleicht ist es aber auch die Art, wie er seine Protagonist:innen gekonnt in Szene setzt. Jedes seiner Bild hinterlässt den Eindruck einer eigenen Dramaturgie, die das Kopfkino nur so ankurbelt. Was wird als nächstes passieren? Was geschah davor?

Long live the words of Andy Warhol- "Business art is the step that comes after art. I started as a commercial artist, and I want to finish as a business artist. Being good in business is the most fascinating kind of art. During the hippie era people put down the idea of business. They'd say "money is bad" and "working is bad". But making money is art, and working is art - and good business is the best art."💎

CAROUSEL BY @GALLERIGKM

We introduced
David Drebin to the GKM family with the solo exhibition "Swept Away" in 2019, we are now happy to present a selection of works from his latest serie "Diamond Dust" artworks in the gallery. Diamond Dust is a glittering material that is applied to paper and ink in the printing process, establishing a textured, elaborate and radiant finish. Diamond Dust captures light alluringly and draws attention to the colors of the work, as well as enhancing the value and beauty of the prints.
The new DD "Diamond Dust" collection is finally here! 💎 @daviddrebin 🌟"

WASHINGTON SQUARE PARK TO ENGAGE WITH DAVID DREBIN

10.16.2024

Everyone has a story.💛

"There's something strangely beautiful about that moment between a dream and reality—the place where who we are and who we want to be get all tangled up like mismatched lovers. David Drebin has captured this feeling in his latest project, but this time, he's left the camera at home.

"I AM YOU AND YOU ARE ME"
"With a direct, often intensely intimate manner, David Drebin's Neon Installations engage with the secret thoughts, fantasies, and hidden dreams of the femmes fatales who inhabit the mysterious world of his well-known photographs. Inspired by love, passion and desire, David Drebin transfers the quintessence of his photographic stories into Neon Installations and compresses them into lettering and pictograms. He expresses truths that are often overlooked or taken for granted, but are imbued with enormous intensity in their expressiveness." - Camera Work

Drebin's artworks also known as "Drebins" are unique and instantly recognizable as his own. His artistic style is often described as epic, dramatic and, above all, cinematic.
His work combines voyeuristic and psychological viewpoints in a unique manner, offering the viewer a dramatic insight into emotions and experiences which many of us have doubtlessly felt at some point in our lives.

"In this episode, David beautifully articulates the importance of building ourselves, attracting the right energy, and how showing vulnerability can be a strength. He speaks candidly about his love for public speaking, a fear he has turned into his greatest passion.

vulnerability can be a strength. He speaks candidly about his love for public speaking, a fear he has turned into his greatest passion.

One of the most inspiring quotes from the episode was when he said, "I just hope that if there is at least one person who may be listening or watching who occasionally may lack belief in themselves, that hearing you and I converse, it gives them hope to chase their dreams and believe in themselves."

This episode is packed full of wisdom, personal stories, and actionable advice. If you're looking for an inspiring and motivating conversation, this episode is a must-listen!

🖤 In a cinematographic manner, David Drebin creates a dream world that, thanks to his hyper-realistic style, at the same time seems so lifelike that as a viewer you feel like part of the scenery. ♥ David Drebin erschafft auf cinematografische Weise eine Traumwelt, die dank seines hyperrealistischen Stils gleichzeitig so lebensecht wirkt, dass man sich als Betrachter als Teil der Szenerie fühlt. Vielleicht ist es gerade dieser Twist, der seine Kunstwerke so spannungsgeladen wirken lässt, vielleicht ist es aber auch die Art, wie er seine Protagonist:innen gekonnt in Szene setzt. Jedes seiner Bild hinterlässt den Eindruck einer eigenen Dramaturgie, die das Kopfkino nur so ankurbelt. Was wird als nächstes passieren? Was geschah davor?

"David Drebin, a Canadian-born artist based in New York, is among the most renowned contemporary artists today. Drebin started his career in commercial advertising after graduating from Parsons School of Design in 1996, creating images of movie stars, sports personalities, and entertainers for high-profile campaigns worldwide. However, Drebin eventually shifted his focus to the art world and gained representation from some of the finest galleries worldwide, becoming a prolific contemporary artist with a signature style that makes his artworks instantly recognizable as "Drebins."

With a unique perspective on life and a keen eye for detail, Drebin continues to inspire art lovers and collectors globally with his unmistakable creations. Whether it's his ability to capture the essence of his subjects or his innovative approach to storytelling, Drebin's work resonates with people in a way that few other artists can. IL LIBRO
Stelle nascenti Prima che arrivi la luce

DAVID DREBIN
Before they were famous di David Drebin, in edizione limitata di 1.200 copie
(200 pp., 89 fotografie, 120 euro) è pubblicato da
teNeues (www.teneues.com).
IL LIBRO
Stelle nascenti Prima che arrivi la luce della fama. Si chiama Before They Were Famous il volume del fotografo canadese David Drebin, che da sempre si muove tra ritratti di protagonisti dello star system e scatti dall'impatto sensuale. In questo nuovo capitolo per l'editore teNeues, però, la prospettiva è diversa. Si vedono attrici come Charlize Theron o Emily Blunt, ma anche Steve Jobs o modelle di fascino (quella della foto), ma tutti i personaggi sono stati immortalati quando ancora non erano famosi. Naturali, colti allo stato nascente. Poi, la celebrità ha cambiato tutto.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, GIRL
Photographer David Drebin has the perfect formula for a steamy shot: Travel to a breath-taking locale, wait for dusk, insert sultry femme fatale, click. The Condé Nast Traveler snapper's The Morning After—a book of dreamy cinematic images, each of which achieves his goal of provoking "goose bumps"—is out this month (teNeues Publishing, $95). Drebin took in multiple cities for the book (New York, Rio, and Hong Kong among them), and shot this pic at the Gran Hotel La Florida, in Barcelona (34-93-259-3000; doubles, $202–$268). Another scene-setter that was just unveiled there is chef brothers Ferran and Albert Adria's Tickets, a tapas-style avant-garde sequel to the legend that was El Bulli. Hedgehog with avocado-mint jelly followed by Manchego cheese ice cream, anyone? (Av. del Paralelo 164; 34-932-924-250.)

A graduate of Parsons School of Design in NYC, David Drebin is a multidisciplinary artist working in various art forms producing limited edition works including Photographs, Lightboxes, Neon Light Installations, Diamond Dust works and more.

Following his first solo exhibition at Camera Work in Berlin in 2005 and the release of his first comprehensive illustrated book "Love and Other Stories" in 2007, Drebin experienced a stream of representation by some of the most prestigious galleries around the globe.

Drebin's artworks also known as "Drebins" are unique and instantly recognizable as his own. His artistic style is often described as epic, dramatic and, above all, cinematic. Drebin has released eight books with teNeues publishing including "The Morning After", "Beautiful Disasters", "Chasing Paradise", "Dreamscapes", "Love and Lights", "Before They Were Famous", "Collectors Edition" an oversized limited edition monograph and the most recently released "Flirting With Danger".
